

HOUSE CHARTER

House of Ölvestad, Barony Löfwesta

Preamble

This Charter records the constitutional order governing House of Ölvestad, Barony Löfwesta, as maintained and affirmed in its updated form for the year 2026, reflecting continuity and standing in accordance with established European noble tradition.

I. Name

The institution is known as House of Ölvestad, Barony Löfwesta.

II. Baronial Dignity

The Barony of Löfwesta is presently held by Kent Bruno Ölvestad.

III. Parallel Dignity and Succession

A parallel baronial dignity, conferred with right of succession to the Barony of Löfwesta, is held by Marcus Bruno Johannes Ölvestad.

IV. Authority

The baronial dignities of Löfwesta derive from the Royal House of Georgia, in accordance with dynastic custom.

V. Relations and Recognitions

The House conducts its institutional relations and exchanges recognitions solely within established noble and chevalric tradition.

Relations, letters of recognition, and institutional acknowledgements are undertaken only with Royal Houses, noble Houses, chivalric Orders, Orders of Merit, or organisations and institutions acting under dynastic, sovereign, or otherwise recognised legitimate authority.

Such relations may also include individuals or institutions able to demonstrate recognised noble standing, historical continuity, or substantive contribution within a legitimate noble, dynastic, or institutional framework.

All such relations are entered into selectively, on the basis of legitimacy, continuity, integrity, and mutual esteem.

VI. The House

House of Ölvestad functions as a private noble house, acting through cultural, charitable, and institutional engagement.

VII. Heraldry

The armorial bearings of the House are duly assumed and registered with a Cronista de Armas, and are borne in accordance with recognised heraldic practice.

VIII. Continuity

The House and the Barony are understood to endure beyond their present holders, in accordance with tradition.
